

'In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.'

Who is this passage talking about? Hint—it's read out at Christmas.

(Jesus)

What do we know about Jesus?

(human, and God)

What do we think of when we think of God?

(big, almighty, all powerful)

So how can this big, almighty God, how can he be inside Jesus?

(pull out TARDIS)

What is special about the TARDIS?

(bigger on the inside than the outside)

Yes, we don't understand how, but the Doctor's TARDIS is bigger on the inside than the outside. So, can anyone tell me how Jesus is like the TARDIS?

(bigger on the inside than the outside, God inside a human being)

Don't understand how it happens, how God can be inside this one person, this one man. But if we open the door to Jesus, then all sorts of wonderful things can start to happen in our lives. It's the first step to a great adventure, the adventure of having God as a friend in our lives.
